Message from the President

LAURA GREEN

Welcome to 2019! We're off to an impressive start with the fall Guild activities' tremendous success in participation, volunteer numbers and fundraising. The fun's only beginning though as we prepare for even more exciting events in the upcoming months!

The final numbers from A Notable Night in Paris are in. Thanks to overwhelming support from our members, sponsors and the community-at-large, we raised $76,804 in support of our Symphony's Education Programs! Congratulations to co-chairs JoAnna Bright and Laura Wolf, and the stellar team they assembled for a job well done. Make plans now to join us in November 2019 as we travel to yet another exciting location to be announced soon!

Many thanks to co-chairs Suzy Walker, Dale Stoechr, and your generosity and support for a record-setting Annual Education Campaign. More than $7,900 was raised to meet unmet music education programming needs. Details regarding the disbursement of these funds can be found in an accompanying article.

Best wishes to our 2019-2020 Executive Committee slate of officers! Thank you for your commitment to serve and for your willingness to say "Yes!" when you received the call. I hope you will find your Guild service as rewarding as I have.

"Share the Love" at our next Simply Social by honoring our new members at loyal Guild sponsor Gia: Eat. Drink. Listen on February 7 at 5:30 p.m. To celebrate the evening, Gia's has created a special signature drink appropriately named Crescendo. Come join us for this fun and "simply social" occasion!

Can you Name That Tune? Join us for the GSO's Viva Las Vegas on February 16 at 7 p.m. at Greensboro Country Club. This annual event will feature an open bar, dinner, live band, auction, casino games and more while highlighting the music of Elvis Presley, Tom Jones, Wayne Newton and others. It is always fun to get a group of friends together for this fun evening! For tickets, call 336-335-5456 ext. 224 or visit www.GreensboroSymphony.org.

Make sure that February 28 is on your calendar for the "Love Our Classics" General Membership Meeting and Tea Party in the beautiful Caldwell Room at the O'Henry Hotel. Classics members will be honored for their many years of service and dedication. As a special treat, our very own Greensboro Symphony Youth Orchestra Honors Quartet will perform.

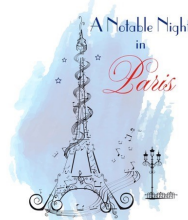

Our new format for regular membership communication will begin in March with the goal of making communication more efficient and effective. Expect to see Tuned in Tuesday the first Tuesday of the month with a second edition the third Tuesday of the month. The Guild Horn will be published again toward the end of May wrapping up the last several months of the Guild year. I look forward to hearing your thoughts on this latest initiative!

Look for information soon on several exciting and new opportunities to support our Guild. The Soft Surroundings shopping event on March 5 promises to get you looking your best for spring! Consider spending March 10 at Dana Auditorium for a GSYO Concert. What a pleasant way to spend an afternoon! Come celebrate the Irish on March 16 at Let's Get Shamrocked. The Painted Plate and Pig Pounder Pavilion will put us all in the mood to share the Luck of the Irish. Elementary School Concerts are scheduled for March 21-22 and 25-27. When you receive the Sign Up Genius request, be sure to respond promptly as we will need to fill 100 volunteer positions. Buckhead Bettie's Bettie Gives Back will be the perfect place to prepare for warm weather, graduation gifts and summer travel on April 3. And Super Sale has a new spectacular venue for our April 13 event – the former Printer's Alley on Westover Terrace. Continue to clean out your closets and look for more information in the coming days.

I look forward to seeing each of you over the coming months!

41st Anniversary Symphony Presentation Ball

The Sheraton Four Seasons Imperial Ballroom was the setting for the 41st Symphony Presentation Ball on Friday, December 28th. Nearly 500 invited guests attended to celebrate our 23 lovely young women, ambassadors of our symphony orchestra during their debutante season, as they took their traditional bow to Donna Richardson, our 2018 Honorary Chair.

GSG volunteers worked tirelessly to create a set featuring a lovely column and drape design, sprinkled with holiday trees and sparkling lights. Clusters of poinsettias, in our signature peach color accented and dotted the set and ballroom. This beautiful setting was the backdrop as the Debutantes were presented to family, friends, and Guild members. Mr. Ralph Edward Knupp served as Master of Ceremonies and Mrs. Donald Gerard Lahey was the 2018 Symphony Presentation Ball Chair. The musicians from the GSO and Youth Orchestra provided ensemble music during the cocktail hour and Presentation. The evening was capped off with dinner and dancing to the music of the U.B.U. Band. What a delightful evening it was!

The events of the season and the extraordinary 2018 Symphony Presentation Ball would not have been possible without the dedication of the members of the Presentation Ball Committee. I extend my sincere thanks to the following Guild members who made the events and the Ball exceptional in every way. Please know that you made unforgettable memories for 23 very delightful young ladies!

*Gratefully yours,

Call for Nominees for Golden Note Award!

The Nominations/Awards committee is accepting nominations for the Golden Note Award. This award was established in 1979 to recognize a Guild Member who has made an outstanding service contribution to the Guild and to the community. Deadline for submissions is April 2nd and the award will be presented at the final Guild meeting of the year. Please send nominations to Elizabeth Craft, Chair.

Music is our Mission The School Concerts Program

The Elementary School Concerts Program has been the hallmark of volunteerism in the Guild for 40 years and there is a fascinating history behind it. Back in 1977, Margaret Faison, Manager of the GSO and Judy Jolly, President of the Guild attended an American Symphony Orchestra Conference in New Orleans. They returned inspired to provide all third and fourth grade students in the Greensboro City Schools an opportunity to attend a full orchestra performance.

The GSO Board endorsed the plan providing that the Guild fund and manage it. A Symphony Ball and silent auction fundraiser were spearheaded by 1978 Guild President Carolyn O'Tuel and 1976 Guild President Mary Fisher. It netted $10,000 ($40,000 by today's standards). Led by Concerts Chair Sally Carmichael, the Guild was one step closer to its goal.

Enter Peggy Johnson, who had recently moved from Washington D.C, where she'd been a volunteer with the National Symphony Orchestra which had a similar program. She approached Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Kenneth Newbold, to request his approval for the program. Dr. Newbold loved the idea, but funds for buses were not in the city schools' budget. He recommended that she contact local businessman Mike Haley of Triton Corporation (McDonald's). Mike enthusiastically agreed to underwrite the cost of the buses and, with the cooperation of Carl Foster (then Music Supervisor for the Greensboro City Schools), the first elementary school concerts were scheduled.

The late Dr. Peter Paul Fuchs began developing the program but Guild members knew that students would need some preparation to fully appreciate the performance. To accomplish this, the late Jeanne Hassell created a curriculum featuring puppets Bert and Ernie to teach a bit of "music appreciation" and concert etiquette at each individual school. Guild members volunteered in great numbers to conduct these programs and also began planning for the logistics of bringing the students together at the concert venue. The inaugural concert in 1978 served approximately 5000 students and was attended by Greensboro's mayor Jim Melvin and many city council members and school board members.

Fast forward 40 years and this innovative program is going strong. The county schools now budget for the bus expenses but Guild members are still key to managing this concert, which has now grown to a five-day event. The Guild develops the seating plan, ushers the student groups in and out, and directs the unloading and reloading of buses. On March 21-27, 2019, more than 50,000 students from Guilford, Alamance, Randolph, and Rockingham Counties will attend our 41st annual school concerts. This year's performances will feature storyteller Josephus III thanks to funds that were contributed at last April's 40th anniversary luncheon celebrating this innovative program.

Cheers to the hundreds of volunteers who have worked tirelessly to enhance the lives of children with concert music since 1978!

Youth Musicians Perform in Fall Concert

On November 18, the GSO's student musicians presented their first concert of the year at Greensboro Day School. The youngest members, the Youth Camerata performed five pieces under the direction of Dr. Ryane Dunnagan and Rachel Watson. Coleen Chenail conducted the Youth Philharmonic in Corelli's Concerto Grosso Op. 6 No. 8 and Gustav Holst's St. Paul's Suite. Finally Evan Feldman conducted the Youth Orchestra in their performance of pieces by Mozart, Steven Bryant, Edward Elgar, and Johann Strauss II. Those attending were treated to an impressive performance by these dedicated young musicians. Their next concert will be at Dana Auditorium at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, March 10. Guild members are encouraged to attend this free concert.

She has been recognized as one of the Best Lawyers in America<sup>1</sup>, as a NC Super Lawyer<sup>2</sup>, a recipient of the "Lawyer's Weekly Leader in Law"<sup>3</sup> award and the Triad Business Journal's Women in Business<sup>4</sup> award. This event is always a favorite not only among Guild members, but in the wider Greensboro community. We already have a huge amount of fabulous furniture including outdoor tables and chairs, sofas, chairs, game table, children's items, artwork and more! We will need help from each of you to make this year's sale successful, so please take a look and see how you can participate!

There are numerous opportunities to help:

- Volunteer to work at the sale, set up, or pricing merchandise. We will need cashiers, department chairs, preview party help ( food donations, bartenders, food set up, etc.), parking lot attendees, help with customer's purchases

Over 80 guests attended including members and guests, our sponsors and Vivace members. Thank you to Ike Hatzisavvas, General Manager of Fink's Jewelers, for hosting the event, to Josephine's Catering for the delicious appetizers, and to Robert Green and R<sup>3</sup> Wealth Management for providing the beer and wine.

Many Guild members got an early start on their holiday wish lists and shopping. Lucky member Rebecca Schlosser won the raffle and took home the beautiful seasonal flower arrangement donated by Guild sponsor, ABBA Design. This event was chaired by Laura Kilmartin and Gail Williams.
